

ARCHIVES WEEK

October 19-25, 2014

Sunday, October 19 | 2:00-6:00pm

Austin Archives Bazaar

Spider House Ballroom, 2906 Fruth St.

This free event features 22 Central Texas archives showing off their amazing collections and is open to the general public. Archival activities and live performances. Find more details at www.austinarchivesbazaar.org

Wednesday, October 22 | 3:30-5:00pm

"Archival Modeling: How computational and data driven workflows can be applied to traditional archival theory and practice"

by Maria Esteva

of Texas Advanced Computing Center (TACC)

TACC Visualization Lab, POB 2.404

Limited seating, RSVP only – saautx@gmail.com

Thursday, October 23 | 4:00-5:00pm

"What You See Is Not What You Get: The History and Nature of Documentary Forgery"

by Dr. David B. Gracy II

Governor Bill Daniel Professor Emeritus in Archival Enterprise

Jessen Auditorium, Homer Rainey Hall, 200 W. 21st St.

Friday, October 24 | 3:00-4:00pm

Best of The Harry Ransom Center

Harry Ransom Center, 300 W. 21st St.

RSVP only, members only – saautx@gmail.com

Friday, October 24 | 4:00-6:00pm

Happy Hour

Gabriel's Café, AT&T Center

Students, faculty, staff & alumni welcome!

Part of American Archives
Month

Presented by the Society of American Archivists Student Chapter
Special thanks to the Graduate Student Assembly and Student Government

